

ELWAY'S

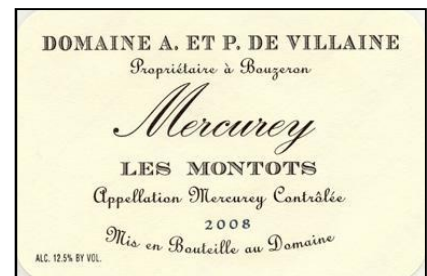

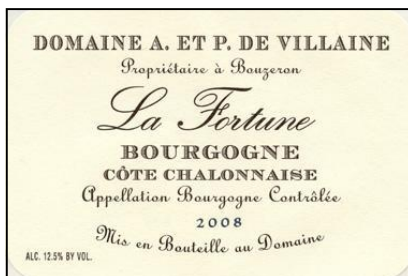

Sommelier Selections

We would like to offer you a challenge: Drink Pinot Noir from France!

Ever since Miles proclaimed that Pinot Noir was king in the movie "Sideways" America's love affair with Pinot Noir has grown by leaps and bounds. However, we seem to be missing the most obvious examples of Pinot Noir out there: Burgundy. The French set the standard for world class Pinot Noir around the globe dating back hundreds of years. Names like Dujac, Romanee-Contee, and Potel, have consistently made wines of amazing depth, expression, and elegance. To help with this challenge we have provided one of the more stunning producers of Burgundy for you to get started with.

Aubert de Villaine deserves all of the accolades he receives. Heir to one of the most enviable wine legacies of all time, Domaine de la Romanée-Contee, the young Aubert was more interested in literature and law than wine. After spending time in New York working for an importer of Burgundian wines, he finally returned home in the mid-nineteen sixties to assume his role as co-director of DRC. Aubert and his wife settled in the Cote Chalonnaise, in the village of Bouzeron, in the 1970's and began making wine of their own. Using his experience from DRC, Aubert creates wines from this region that are stunning examples of what is possible with Pinot Noir. We are proud to feature four of Aubert's wines. Taste the "La Fortune", and decide if you are ready to step up to the "La Digoine" or the "Les Montots". The "Les Clous", which is 100% Chardonnay, is another great example of what is possible with this varietal.

Let's join together and rediscover the beauty and versatility of Pinot Noir from a region that has been producing it for a very long time!

Champagne: The Next Evolution

There is a growing trend within the region of Champagne that is moving away from the house style made Champagnes of the larger producers, to one that focuses on the growers and the wines they are making from their own estate vineyards. Call it what you will, Grower Champagne, Estate Bordered Champagne, or Farmer Fizz, these producers are reviving the age old idea of terroir in the Champagne region. While the larger houses of Champagne may buy grapes, or wine from any of the 15,000 growers in Champagne, these producers oversee every step from bud break in the vineyard to the bottling of the finished product. They offer a new way to taste Champagne and the unbelievable quality that can come from growing, producing and bottling wine from specific villages or vineyards. We are proud to offer the following "Grower Champagnes" from several distinct producers. We hope you enjoy them as much as we do.

Wines of Age

As a restaurant, we are often in a position to purchase wines before they are released to the public. However, sometimes we are able to purchase wines that are referred to as "library wines". These are wines that have been held at the winery to be released at a later date. This page is dedicated to the older vintages we have as well as consecutive years of particular wines. We are proud to be able to offer these wines of "vintage depth" for our guests. Please enjoy!
