Best Martini Elway's Cherry Creek

With so many contemporary-cocktail choices out there, you don't want a mixologist messing with your martini throwing in fruit and chocolate or, God forbid, edging the glass with chile powder. You want your martini as classic as the atmosphere in which it's served. And for that, you want Elway's. Grab a seat at the bar, tell bar manager Ky Belk what you want — and then prepare to be shaken, if not stirred.
